We're super excited to be welcoming you to ICMP this year, with brand new facilities and new opportunities continuously arising, we know you're going to have a great time!

To get you off to a flying start we've organised two special days of events. On Monday 12th, we'll bring all new students together at the beautiful Islington Assembly Hall where we'll give you the lowdown on how to get the most from your time at ICMP, we'll also treat you to some live music and a very special guest.

On the second day, you'll join us at ICMP by completing your enrolment and then attending a 'welcome' session with your Programme Leader, followed by a workshop, allowing you to dive straight into your subject areas.

We advise you not to miss either day. These days will provide the foundation to your time at ICMP, and will provide the opportunity to meet your new classmates, and familiarise yourself with everything before classes start.

See you there!
